1777

Journal kept by Capt. Henry Dearborne, of the proceedings, and particular occurrences, which happened within my knowledge to the troops, under the command of Colonel Benedicte Arnold, in the year 1775 which troops were detached from the American army lying before the town of Boston, for the purpose of marching to, and taking possession of Quebec. [From Sept. 10, 1775 to July 16, 1776.] Also, diary from July 25, 1776 to Dec. 4, 1777. (28) ff.

A printed copy may be found on *4314.128 and *4314.130

Contains also a few notes covering the time from July 25, 1776, to August 3, 1777, and a diary from August 3 to December 4, 1777. During this time Gen. Dearborn was in New York state. The journal of the expedition was apparently written out by a professional copyist, after the events, and only the notes of July 25, 1776, to Aug. 3, 1777, seem to be in Dearborn's own hand.

To Elias Boudinot, at Elizabethtown.

[Philadelphia.] Lately sent him two tracts; one on the misuse of spirituous liquors, and one on the slavery question. The second was published by John Wesley and a few notes were added by himself. Regrets that the country should evince such animosity for the "parent state." Cannot see why the southern colonies should so enthusiastically extol liberty when they themselves hold so many slaves. [Leicester Square, London.] Has heard that several ships have reached Boston, but does not know about Mr. Gray's brig. Planned to mark the provisions he is sending for G: Robinson, but has since heard that G: Howe has countermanded the troops from proceeding to Halifax and so he will ship the goods by Major Smelt. Mentions Mr. Wilkins and his one transport. Is finding it difficult to arrange for shipping provisions. Believes that the appointment of Lord Howe will be pleasing to the people at Boston. Mr. Lyde has returned from Portsmouth. Comments on the late Act of Parliament and the effect it will have on money affairs. Remarks that his family is well through the small pox scare. Advises against sending money in a king's ship. Thinks it not prudent to write more about the moves of the government. A.L.S. 4p. 9 x 7 1/2 in.

Mr. Hayley accepted the bill which he deposited with Gines (?) and Atkinson, G: Hutchinson, banker. Hutchinson also has the proceeds from the sale of the plate. Relates his plan to send provisions by the donation ship and the delay because of the heavy frosts. Cannot tell him the plans of the government nor has he any news respecting the plan which he mentioned. Knows nothing of C. Hamilton. Lord Howe is to go over. To Isaac Winslow, his brother-in-law, at Halifax.

[London.] Repeats the news of the amount granted to him by the government. Has heard no word of them for some time or from New York but that Lord Howe and General Clinton with the Hessian troops had joined General Howe. Fears for what may have occurred. Mr. Joshua Loring writes to Colonel Hatch from Staten Island that Mr. S (?) Prince had made his escape from Long Island. Does not mention Mr. G:B---ne, and so believes he is still at Long Island. Relates how Thomas Bromfield left the country secretly and went to Paris. Royal is very ill; other friends well; the Copleys send greetings. A.L.S. 3p. 9 x 7 1/2 in.
